

Nick Hetzler – Musician Bio

Nick Hetzler is a singer-songwriter and musician based in Nashville, Tennessee, who crafts a sound as diverse as the influences that inspire him. Blending Country, Rock, Pop, Americana, and Blues, Nick's music showcases soulful vocals, gritty guitar work, and heartfelt songwriting that resonates with listeners from all walks of life.

Born in the small town of Beardstown, Illinois, Nick's journey into music began with a passion for storytelling and a guitar in hand. Growing up in a close-knit community, he developed an appreciation for honest, hardworking values that continue to shape his music today.

Citing musical icons such as Chris Stapleton, John Mayer, Stevie Ray Vaughan, and Led Zeppelin as his inspirations, Nick channels raw emotion and timeless melodies into every performance. His live shows are dynamic and engaging, leaving audiences energized and connected. Nick has played some of Nashville's most iconic venues, including Tootsies, Ole Red, and Tin Roof, as well as the historic Eddie's Attic in Decatur, Georgia, where he made his debut in January 2023.

Nick debuted his recording career in 2023 with singles How Far Gone? and Whisper In The Breeze, followed by the 2024 releases Nothing Left To Lose—a hard-driving outlaw anthem—and Slow, a bluesy ballad that captures his soul-stirring style. These songs reflect Nick's ability to channel raw emotion into his storytelling, earning him recognition on platforms like Radio Sobro and an interview in the Nashville Voyager Magazine.

Offstage, Nick balances his music career with being a devoted husband, father, and full-time professional. His journey is one of perseverance, passion, and authenticity, a testament to his belief in chasing dreams no matter the odds.

Whether he's delivering a hard-driving outlaw anthem or a slow, bluesy ballad, Nick Hetzler's music is a genuine reflection of where he's been and where he's going. From small-town roots to the heart of Nashville's music scene, his story is just beginning, and he's inviting you to be a part of it.
